"Back in March 2013, we posted a blog about a recall and warning letter from the FDA (Food and Drug Administration) regarding a product called "Super Deep Throat". We have since come to find out that there are hundreds of consumers who have purchased this product thinking that it was safe when in reality, it is just plain dangerous. On our blog post, I included a bottle of the product with a label that read "Super Deep Throat" on the front label. It also said, "Made in USA". However, on the back label, it did say "Made in China". Unfortunately for us (consumers), we didn't even know these things were important until the recall was issued. The recall letter did state on the back label; however, there were no mentions of country of origin. From the recall and warning letter, we also found that there is a recall and warning letter that was issued by the FDA in February 2002. It said: "FDA Warning Letters to Stone Stone Manufacturing Co. Inc." Stone Stone Manufacturing Co. Inc... was located in Brooklyn, NY and they were located at 1590 Bergen Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11219 (718) 620-3921 (718) 620-2481". The letter was written fro the FDA Commissioner regarding a product called "Super Deep Throat". Super Deep Throat is not only sold online for $49.95 but it's also sold at various stores such as:
